OUR JOURNEY

1956

Dewan Latehan RIDA

Dewan Latehan RIDA (Rural and Industrial Development Authority Training Centre) was established with the objective of rebuilding rural society as well as improving its economy.

1967

Institut Teknologi MARA

On 14 October 1967, MARA College was officially renamed Institut Teknologi MARA (ITM).

1965

Maktab MARA

Dewan Latehan RIDA was renamed Maktab MARA. MARA stands for 'Majlis Amanah Rakyat' or the Council of Trust for Indigenous People.

1999

Universiti Teknologi MARA

On 26 August 1999, ITM was renamed Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM).

With this acknowledgement from the government, a major restructuring exercise was carried out in order to consolidate the university's resources for optimum productivity.

1996

Institut Teknologi MARA

As a result of an amendment to the 1976 Act, ITM was given all powers accorded to a university but retained its historical name until 1999. By then, ITM had established a branch campus in every state of the country.

Unleashing Potentials Shaping the Future

UiTM upholds its bold beginning and philosophy that every individual has the ability to attain excellence if given the opportunity.

As UiTM moves forward, it remains focused on nurturing and educating students from impoverished rural backgrounds by inspiring them to dream beyond what life has shown them and to let them experience what the world has to offer.

UiTM will forge ahead in its continuing role as a catalyst for social engineering and to transform challenges into opportunities that will improve the socio-economic landscape of the country.
